"GOOD CITIZENSHIP" MEETING

Mr. Holt, Who is a Recognized Probibition Orator, Was the Principal Speaker, and He Blamed the Liquor

B. Bigger the Other Speaker—The Meetings to be Continued.

The English Lutheran church was the scene of the "Good Citizenship" meeting last night. The speakers were Mr. J. Howard Holt, of Moundsville, a lawyer, and Rev. R. R. Bigger, of the Third Presbyterian church. As usual in the previous meetings, the fair sex was in the majority, and manifested equal integral in the second of the strictest of the second of the second of the strictest of the second of the sec terest in the addresses. Next week the meedings will be continued. Rev. Sam-uel Schwarm, pastor of the church, presided at last night's meeting.

Mr. Holt, who is recognized as one of the ablest Prohibition orators in the state, spoke almost exclusively on the evils of the saloon. The saloon as a source of disorder, was his theme; and to this source he ascribed all the evils of the saloon were to this source of the saloon were sal hatched the plans of the ward heelers, hatched the plans of the ward heelers, claimed Mr. Holt, and the saloon element dominated politics in a large measure. He didn't believe in licensing the liquor traffic, and he sarcastically scored high license advocates. An argument houndsville citizens were familiar with he continued, was that it was no use for them to have prohibition while run could be purchased in Wheeling, and so Mr. Holt argued for Wheeling's ridding itself of the liquor traffic that it might prove an example to the rest of the Onio Valley.

Valley.

Mr. Holt continued with a scathing arthe people with encouraging a diaregard for law by licensing the saicon. It was lamentable that ten young men were to be found patronizing the saicon to one found in attendance at church gatherings. The speaker had found in his fifteen years' experience as a lawyer in the courts that it wasn't safe to expect the truth concerning the liquor business from the salcon proprietor, nor would Mr. Holt expect to find the truth from more than one out of the ten men found in a salcon, when it came to a trial concerning the salcon. The salcon element was organized, said Mr. Holt, to exercise effect in politics, and he further believed the balance in power, consisting of "the salcon and hum element," as he termed it, was purchased in elections. people with encouraging a disregard

The liquor traffic stood on three things: First, the appetite of the drinker; second, the avarice of the seller; third, the high license advocates. In the churches were the high license advocates, and the blame for the continuance of the traffic was due to the churches, which directly or indirectly stood for high license, argued Mr. Holt, and to the people who licensed the su-loon was chargeable the moral responsibility for the evils of saloons. Mr. Holt advised a scattering of the saloon forces to get enforcement of laws concerning them, and in closing, he urged his hear-ers to vote for closing the saloon. There could never be good municipal governould never be good municipal govern-ient, he said, until the saloon was clos-

Rev. Mr. Bigger opened by saying he believed interest was increasing in the meetings and he expected to see larger audiences next week. The speaker took issue with the newspaper accounts of the meetings that the women turned out more numerously than the voters. The Christian citizenship movement was on the advance, said Mr. Bigger, and it was non-partisus and non-sectarian.

WHEN YOU GET "GO"

The Entire Machine Moves Better.

The thing to be almed at by every one is to keep the vitality up, and there is no surer way than by the use of food that quickly and easily digrests. A lady writes: "We have been using your Grape-Nuts for quite a while past, and while using them have discovered that an increase of strength and vigor has set in and also the bowsis move regularly and better than ever before. My husband has been troubled with constipation for a long time, but since he has been eating Grape-Nuts the trouble has entirely disappeared. I know that the relief came from the use of the food, for we have a friend that was troubled in the same way and had been freated for a year or more, but since he has been using Grape-Nuts the difficulty has entirely disappeared.

I naturally do not care to have my name used in the public press, but sm glad to advise you of these facts." —, Stoughton, Mass. (Name can be furnished by Postum Cereal Co, makers of Grape-Nuts, Battle Creek, Mich.)

The food is so made that it is predigasted, and therefore does not distress the digestive organs. It is a concentrated food, and furnishes nourishment of the kighest class in the mout simple form. Added to this, the flavor is delicious. The grape-sugar can be seen in fine crystals, glittering on the surface of the little granules. It is so easily digested that babes in arms can be fed Grape-Nuts combined with milk or creame, to marked advantage. Sold by all first-class grocers. The thing to be almed at by every one
